

Timothy Grice

YEAR OF CALL: 1975

INN: MIDDLE TEMPLE

Tim is absolutely outstanding on paper, in conference and at trial. He's always got a very good grasp of facts and is proactive and tactical in terms of how he approaches cases. He's also very user-friendly and establishes a good rapport with clients."

CHAMBERS UK, 2020

PERSONAL INJURY

Practice Overview

Tim is a heavyweight advocate with a substantial personal injury and clinical negligence practice. He undertakes an extensive range of multi-track personal injury and clinical negligence cases including catastrophic brain and spinal injury, high value and fatal claims and accidents resulting in death.

His knowledge of the law and his skill in court have been described as outstanding. He has an ability to process complex information and express his conclusion in a clear and logical manner.

Tim regularly gives lectures and seminars on legal topics with an emphasis on practical aspects of legal practice.

Tim sits as a Recorder in the County and Crown Courts. He is a past President of the Bristol Medico-Legal Society.

Areas of Expertise

Clinical Negligence

Tim is a heavyweight advocate with a substantial clinical negligence practice. He undertakes an extensive range of multi-track personal injury and clinical negligence cases including catastrophic brain and spinal injury, high value and fatal claims and accidents resulting in death. He also handles a high volume of cerebral palsy and birth injury cases. His knowledge of the law and his skill in court have been described as outstanding. He has an ability to process complex information and express his conclusions in a clear and logical manner.

Recent cases have included claims involving:

- ▶ Obstetric and gynaecological injuries
- ▶ Catastrophic failures of laparoscopic surgery and management of laparoscopic injuries
- ▶ Failures to diagnose and treat cancer
- ▶ Negligent management and/or surgery in cases of orthopaedic and musculo-skeletal injury
- ▶ Cauda equina syndrome
- ▶ GP, dental and ophthalmic negligence

Personal Injury

Tim is a heavyweight advocate with a substantial personal injury practice. He undertakes a wide range of personal injury cases including, in particular, employer's liability claims. He has a particular interest in cases of factual and medical, psychological and psychiatric complexity.

His knowledge of the law and his skill in court have been described as outstanding. He has an ability to process complex information and express his conclusions in a clear and logical manner.

Recent cases have included claims involving:

- ▶ Severe brain injury
- ▶ Spinal injury
- ▶ Complex Regional Pain Syndrome
- ▶ Severe musculo-skeletal injury
- ▶ Fibromyalgia
- ▶ Pain disorders
- ▶ Stress and bullying at work
- ▶ Freezing and Non-Freezing Cold Injury – particularly Armed Services personnel
- ▶ Trauma and Multiple Sclerosis

Recent Cases

- ▶ Beggs v Jenkins [2011] EWCA Civ 953
- ▶ Broadfield v Meyrick Estate Management [2011] EWCA Civ 1135
- ▶ Edwards-Tubb v J D Wetherspoon plc [2011] Civ EWCA Civ 313
- ▶ Palmer v Cornwall County Council [2009] EWCA Civ 456
- ▶ Verlander v Devon Waste Management [2007] EWCA Civ 835
- ▶ Davies v Molyneux [2006] EWCA Civ 607
- ▶ Burgess v Plymouth City Council [2005] EWCA Civ 1659
- ▶ Clare v Perry [2005] EWCA Civ 39
- ▶ James v Butler [2005] EWCA Civ 1014
- ▶ Nixon v F J Morris

Appointments

- ▶ Recorder

Professional memberships:

- ▶ Personal Injury Bar Association

Qualifications & awards

- ▶ MA (Oxon)

Contact Tim:

tim.grice@stjohnschambers.co.uk

Contact the clerks:

T: 0117 923 4730

E: piclerks@stjohnschambers.co.uk