

The Dorset Law Society are hosting a private client seminar aimed at both contentious and non-contentious lawyers

The Dorset Law Society
Est. 1835

The promotion of honourable practice

Wednesday 9th October 2019
2pm to 5pm (including coffee and cake)

To book your place, please
email:
enquiries@dorsetlawsociety.co.uk

£45 for members
£55 for non members

Venue: The Town Hall, Dorchester,
DT1 1HF

Topics of this seminar include:

Knowing when to hold, when to fold and when to walk away:

A Practical Guide to Bringing and Defending Claims to Remove Personal Representatives”

Christopher Jones of St John’s Chambers <https://www.stjohnschambers.co.uk/profile/christopher-jones>

“Make your Beddoe and lie in it the role of Personal Representatives in litigation:

A guide to the duties of PRs/trustees in friendly and hostile litigation.”

Oliver Wooding of St John’s Chambers <https://www.stjohnschambers.co.uk/profile/oliver-wooding>

“Vulnerable Testators Workshop: how to reduce risks and correct mistakes!” - A workshop