

BRISTOL RESOLUTION DAY COURSE FRIDAY 1 MARCH 2024

The Bristol Resolution Committee are delighted to announce the return of the Day Course.

This year's course will take place on Friday 1 March 2024 from 9.15am (registration from 8.45am) to 4.15pm at Engineers' House, The Promenade, Clifton Down, Clifton, Bristol BS8 3NB.

This year the course will touch on a variety of specific topics which will be of relevance to private family law practitioners of all levels practicing financial and children aspects of family law. The course is aimed at providing an update on both legal and practical developments within family law.

We are delighted to welcome the following speakers:

- HHJ Stephanie Cope of the Family Court, Bristol, who will provide a View from The Bench.
- Amy Beddis and Nicola Frost of 3PB, who will provide a financial remedy case law update and addressing costs and conduct.
- Sue Faiers and Karen Press of Evelyn Partners, who will provide a pension and tax update including in relation to the change in CGT rules and PAG2.
- Vivien Croly of St John's Chambers, who will provide a practical insight into cohabitation claims.
- Heather Rutherford of the Parenting Partnership, who will discuss parenting through separation.
- Sarah Pope of Albion Chambers, who will provide a private law children update.

Lunch will be provided. The course will provide 5 hours of CPD for solicitors and barristers. The course notes will be provided via email in advance. There is free parking at the venue.

To register for your place, please email khanson@vww.co.uk.

It is important that we confirm numbers to the venue as far in advance as possible to ensure the event can go ahead. We would ask that you respond to secure your place by Monday 5 February 2024.
